

UBC STUDENT FINANCIAL PLANNING WORKSHEET

To get a clear financial picture during your studies at UBC, create a budget that considers both university and living costs. The asterisks (*) below indicate the timing of your UBC payments for tuition, on-campus housing, and meal plans. To check your fees and their due dates, visit www.students.ubc.ca/ssc.

Term 1 Budget (September to December)

	SEPTEMBER	OCTOBER	NOVEMBER	DECEMBER
INCOME
Savings + family contribution
Expected earnings from part-time work
Student loans (provincial + federal)
Scholarships, bursaries
Other:
Total income
EDUCATIONAL EXPENSES
Tuition and student fees (September instalment)	*
Books
Additional costs (photocopies, field trips, etc.)
Subtotal (Educational):
LIVING EXPENSES
Rent/on-campus housing (Sept.), Meal plan (Nov.)	*		*
Utilities (phone, cable, Internet, hydro)
Groceries and household supplies (laundry)
Transportation (e.g., car payment, gas, carpool)
Personal (haircuts, clothing) + entertainment
Medical, dental, eye care
Loan, credit card payments
Subtotal (Living)
Total expenses (Educational + Living)
INCOME – EXPENSES (Carry forward surplus to next month's income)				