

FOCUS:

Writing Fancy Sentences

Writing Calendar for the Month of: _____

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
dog chase shop	boy flies kite	doctor hunts prey	baby cries milk	kitten climbs tree	girl goes to	boy hits home run tiger roars people	giant stomped forest	president visited school	bear stomped forest	fox burrowed nest	beaver digs ground	rabbit hopped garden children play tag	principal kissed pig	butterfly flutters air	brother tripped stairs	mom shopped store	grandma bakes cookies	teenager listened music owl hooted tree	cow grazed grass	gopher gambled with	teacher tripped stairs	student sharpened pencil	artist painted pictures	surfer rides waves pirates dig treasure	boy crashed bicycle	hero tripped stairs	toenail juggled balls	flowers bloom spring	horse galloped meadow	dad caught fish family ate pizza				Use Adjectives and Adverbs to Add Details to Your Sentences! Directions: This month you will focus on writing "fancy sentences." Use the three words provided to write two sentences - a plain sentence and a fancy sentence. For example: turtle, swims, pond - Plain sentence: The turtle swims in the pond. Fancy sentence: The small, green turtle swims quickly through the pond looking for food.						