

Using Similes

Name _____

Figurative language includes special forms that writers use to help readers make a strong connection to their words. A simile is one kind of figurative language. It makes a comparison of two unlike things using the words "like" or "as".

Complete the sentences below by finishing the simile in each sentence.

1. He quickly discovered that his new friend was as smart as _____.
2. With his long legs and neck, he stretched as tall as _____.
3. The crashing waves in the ocean were foamy like _____.
4. When her parents left, she felt as lonely as _____.
5. He sharpened his pencil until its point was sharp like _____.
6. The man danced on the roof like _____.
7. My little brother is as funny as _____.
8. The sidewalk was as dry as _____.
9. The vesting of the rat at night was like _____.
10. Jesse's two drops were as round as _____.
11. After his huge dinner, Peter's belly was round like _____.
12. Jennifer's bedroom was as messy as _____.
13. Albert was as curious as _____.
14. Our new igloo puzzle is as impossible as _____.
15. The little girl plays the piano as expertly as _____.
16. Grandpa Joe's singing was out of tune, like _____.
17. Whoever designed the mural at school is as creative as _____.
18. Getting ready for school in the morning is as crazy as _____.