

Proof-reading

Here is a conversation that includes two riddles. Some of the capital letters, commas, quotation marks, and some other punctuation marks have been left out. Proof-read the text, and write your corrections on the page.

Do you like riddles asked joshua When I can solve them replied sue Try this one then joshua continued

This thing eats up all we know
Animals plants and birds also
It bites metal grinds rocks down
Attacks the man who wears the crown.
Lofy mountains are made lower
By its never ceasing power.

That's difficult complained sue you'll have to give me time That's it laughed joshua you've said the answer sue thought for a moment so i have she exclaimed My turn now.

A box without hinges key or lid
Yet golden treasure inside is hid.

Riddles adapted from The Hobbit by J. R. R. Tolkien

Write the answers to the two riddles here.

The answer to joshua's riddle is .....

The answer to Sue's riddle is .....