

Reflection: Individual Learning

Documented and reflect on the following:

- I have been successful in applying my new knowledge and skills to my current work situation and I have successfully completed the assigned case reports.
- I have, on many occasions, distinguished the requirements and expectations for assignments and tasks in my current work situation.
- I have been able to identify and understand my strengths and strengths as well as areas for improvement in my current work situation.
- I will make every effort to continue to improve myself by staying up to date on the latest information and technology in my field.
- I will make every effort to continue to improve myself by staying up to date on the latest information and technology in my field.
- I will make every effort to continue to improve myself by staying up to date on the latest information and technology in my field.

Signature _____ Date _____

Parent Signature _____ Date _____