

SAM AND HIS VIOLIN

1. FILL IN THE BLANKS BY THE CORRECT PAST TENSE.

Sam (to know) asked Bob Dane, "You don't like work very much, Sam?"
Bob replied Paul (to say), "What are you going to do now?"
"I'm going to study music", Sam (to answer). "I'm going to go to a music college."
Sam (to get) the other music college, but he (not) find anybody worth.
He (to buy) guitars and (to get) the drums and he just everything, but he never (to have) much money.
Then he (to have) some holidays. He (to get) Peter and
..... (to see) his friend Bill again.
Peter (to say), "What are you going to do, Sam?"
"I'm not", (to be) Sam's answer. "But my father isn't very rich. I
..... (to write) to him and (to ask) him for $500 for a new violin, but he (not) know the money. He (to send) me a violin."