

Hunger Games Letter Assignment

A letter to Gary Ross: Critics review

Instructions:

1. Write a critique letter to Mr. Ross, the director of the movie Hunger Games.
2. Follow proper business letter format (page 20).
3. Follow the rules for writing a critique (page 20).
4. Write the rough copy in class or your desk.
5. Write the final copy on your computer at home.
6. Hand in your final copy with a cover page and your rough copy attached to the back of the final copy.
7. Consider some of these questions as you are writing your critique:
  - Where the characters believable?
  - Where the actions appropriate and realistic?
  - Where the settings appropriate and effective?
  - Is the sound track effective and appropriate? Is the music appropriate or is it inappropriate?
  - Did the film make use of the symbols or symbolism as mentioned in the novel? Were they used effectively? How does the symbolism in the film contribute to the audience's feel towards the novel?
  - How was the message you feel from the novel different than the message you saw in the movie?
  - Do you think there appropriate use of the novel compared to the movie?

Date _____