

Name: _____ Date: _____

Hyphen

Find the pair or group of words that need to be hyphenated and write the correct form with the hyphen(s) in the blank.
Then rewrite the correct sentences.

A hyphen is a short, single-character line which connects word parts.
Hyphens may be used for words with prefixes.
The hyphen usually goes between the root word and the prefix.

All twenty one of the players rode on the bus to game. _____

The well liked player received cheers from the packed stadium. _____

The post season countdown began yesterday. _____

A long awaited call from the coach after tryouts left her ecstatic. _____

His non Republican colleagues waited for the bill to pass. _____

These once a day vitamins will keep you healthy. _____

The organization needed fifty seven volunteers. _____

The expresident visited the country that was in need of aid. _____

His great uncle was a venerated soldier in that war. _____

His pro Democratic views made some of the others unhappy. _____