

Read the following sentences then underline the verbs, circle the adjectives, double underline the irregular past tense.

- 1) She went to the park and had a wonderful time.
- 2) He was the smartest student in grade 10.
- 3) Did she spend all her money on that leather jacket?
- 4) What a beautiful house! It was built in 1980.
- 5) That singer has the best voice! She sings beautifully about love.
- 6) I don't know how to do this exercise. I am a little confused.
- 7) He will be taking his kids to school from last week for three/three weeks.
- 8) Can you find this hotel on the map? I am not wearing my glasses and I can't see.
- 9) The silver key always gets stuck in the entrance door. We found a new one.
- 10) She remembers his name when he falls from the stairs.
- 11) Canada has the most beautiful lakes in the world.
- 12) She worked for a famous company for the entire/whole 20 years.
- 13) They are living a comfortable life together.
- 14) I've never seen anything more. It's more the quiet last night I had than wonderful!
- 15) Whose car is that again? Didn't I tell you not to use my car again?

Which past tenses of irregular verbs have the same spelling and pronunciation?

Make a list here: