

Directions

Use the footprints to keep track of the characters. Who are the suspects?

In each heel, write the name of a character. In the top part of the footprint, write important information about that character.

