

Odysses... What is good

Odysses was his name,
A victory in Troy he claims he claimed

So off he set to Ithaca fair,
Thinking the Gods to take him there!

Daed number 1. Odessa,
Who soon became dreadful opponent

Daed number 2. Oh dear this men had been tricked,
Little did they know. Lotus meat was not a treat!

Next they landed near a town,
No fear the oxen my men are known!

Up 'Ox a frightened goat soon appears.
His name was Cyclops the King of Peas!

They soon got past without a peep,
Tucked beneath some nervous sheep.

A bit of luck at last,
They met Aeneas who gave them wind to get them
Home (good and fast!)

Suspicious crew with no breath,
Opened the bag of wind that sent them back again
