

Fred: Hi George.
How are you?

George: I'm fine. Thanks. What about you?

Fred: I'm very well.

George: Fred, this is my mother Mary.

Fred: Hi Mom. How do you do?

Mary: Nice to meet you, Fred.

Fred: George, where do you live?

George: I live near my school, in the center of the city.

Fred: Oh, you are in the same country as my son. Is he here?

George: No, he's not.

Fred: Well, I've been thinking...

1. Where are the people in the dialog?
2. How is Fred? And George?
3. How is Mary?
4. Where is Mary from?
5. Where is George and Fred from?

Complete with the right form of the verb To Be.

- a. I was _____ (responsible)
- b. My father _____ (live) near the hospital.
- c. I _____ (be) responsible.
- d. My son _____ (live) in the center of the city.
- e. Fred _____ (be) here.
- f. George and Fred _____ (live) near the school. They _____ (live) there.
- g. My son _____ (be) in the same country.
- h. My son _____ (be) at the restaurant.

Use the verb appropriate