

Teacher's Guide

Intermediate Communication 4: An advertisement

General aims:

What do the students know?

How many do they know about?

The teacher starts to give an example, using the name of a food preparation, fruit, vegetable, country, like "orange" and the first student has to say the name of another food that starts with the first letter of the word said before, like "Apple" and the other student must do the same, like "Apple", and so on.

What is the goal?

To give students to extend their oral communication.

To give students to be spontaneous.

What is your favourite food or fruit?

Do you like to travel? Where do you usually go?

What is your hobby?

What are your friends, where do you usually visit?

Do you have a pet?

What is your favourite sport?

Do you prefer what makes a continuous game?

What is the language?

The teacher has to read and take notes to search the words in the text with the students, giving any necessary grammar, if necessary.

Match the words in the text with the statements.

1. Boreas - 2. wind - 3. snow - 4. down - 5. rain

1) Many people think that there were real dinosaurs that's right, tall, and _____

_____.

2) They like to _____ and experience adventures.

3) Would you like to travel with your _____?

4) What's your _____?

5) What kind of _____ would you like with your school? What games, sports, or hobbies?

What is the activity?

Give the students to the students and have to read it before any vocabulary problems, if necessary and activities to answer the questions.
