

Writing a Poetry Analysis Poem

1. Pick three poems to be written and based:
 - a. Decide your audience
 - b. List each poem's context to describe the time period (poem may be about a journey to New York City, but the speaker could be from Africa)
 - c. Note anything new words reader can understand from the poem (either from the author or poet)
 - d. The same poem is called the speaker's own, situation, and also it could have any reference to how the situation is about a person's family or past

Theme: There are relationships, descriptions, situations that have a reason or purpose as well as the poem having relationships and multiple purposes.

1. Poem choice between a poet analysis,

Examples of Poetry Analysis Poems

1. Poems

Example of writing words based with names, location, journey, multiple-choice options, etc.

1. Analysis

Great literature, inspiring thoughts
Came from imagination, infinite mind
No boundaries, powerful language
Exceptional representation, pure craftsmanship
Invaluable, timeless wisdom
Lingers in heart, life-changing thoughts

2. Poems

Surprise, interesting words, right here, now, morning, night, baby, things, young, right, etc.

3. Poems

Stressful, moving, nice words
Dynamite words, inspiring, infinite
Loving, moving, full words
Moving, inspiring, moving words
So not different, just words
No rules, just words
No rules, just words