

How We Communicate

As people, we have to communicate. There are four "blocks" that we use to make every communication what we really say or write.

- 1. We use nouns to make things, places, things-architects what, what's
- 2. We use adjectives to describe people, places, things & ideas
the short man, the tall woman
- 3. We use verbs to show action, or the condition of things.
I started the story two pages. The girl always cries.
The short man is painting. The tall woman is reading.
I love reading. The short man is a painter. The tall woman is a reader.
The short man is in the yard. The tall woman is in the yard.
- 4. We use adverbs to tell how, when, where, how much, etc.
The short man is painting well. The tall woman is reading fast.
The short man always cries loud. The tall woman usually reads fast.
The short man always paints in the yard there.
The tall woman usually reads in the yard.
The short man is painting every day. The tall woman is reading every day.
