

Ex 1

Put verbs in brackets in present continuous or their simple, appropriate infinitive above (12 points)

1. I am watching TV. (watch)
2. I am not listening. (listen)
3. He is always coming late to school. (come)
4. She isn't coming back to school. (come)
5. I am not going to school today. (go)
6. We aren't coming. (come)
7. They aren't going to the meeting. (go)
8. I am not following him. (follow)
9. I am not taking any more. (take)
10. She isn't going to school. (go)
11. He isn't coming tonight. (come)
12. The teacher is always coming to school at eight tomorrow. (come)
13. They aren't going to school. (go)
14. When is your brother coming? (come)
15. I am not coming tonight unless you are going. (come/ go)
16. Would you bring me some books? (bring)
17. How is the flight going? (go)
18. He isn't coming to school. (come)
19. He isn't going to school in five days. (go)
20. He isn't coming. (come)
21. If you bring that letter to me, I will bring it. (bring)
22. He isn't coming. (come)
23. She isn't coming to school. (come)
24. What is your brother doing now? (do)
25. They aren't coming to school. (come)

Ex 2

Put verbs in brackets in present continuous or their "to" form (10 points)

1. She isn't coming to school. (come)
2. Why are you coming to school now? (come)
3. What is your brother doing? (do)
4. Would you bring me some books? (bring)
5. How is the flight going? (go)
6. Come and see me tomorrow. (come)
7. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
8. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
9. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
10. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
11. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
12. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
13. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
14. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
15. Will you bring me some books? (bring)
16. Will you bring me some books? (bring)