

2. Holding up the pictures, one at a time, teacher and students share their thoughts about the pictures. Excitedly respond to different students' diverse interpretation of the pictures.
3. Teacher displays the Favorite Pictures page or a blank page.

4. After explaining that this page belongs in the Ideas Section of the Vocabulary Book, teacher glues a magazine picture on the page.

5. The teacher then models writing about the picture in his/her journal.
6. Students then choose a picture and glue it on their Favorite Picture page or a blank piece of paper in the Idea Section of their Vocabulary Book.
7. After attaching the picture to their Favorite Picture page, students write about it in their journals. More pictures can be added as the year progresses.
8. Writers share their journals with the class.

