

Salesian English School (Primary)
Class Suspension Primary Six English Worksheet 4 (17/06/2009)

Name: _____ Class: _____()

A. Fill in the blanks with a, an, the or X.

I was only _____ 8-year-old child when I first came back to _____ Hong Kong. Although it was _____ first time I had returned to this city – the Pearl of the Orient, I felt excited. I was very surprised that I had _____ number of _____ cousins whom I had never seen before. Maggie, _____ oldest of my cousins, has already been _____ university student. During my first visit, I stayed here for _____ three weeks. My cousins took me to _____ lot of _____ tourist spots. My Cantonese improved a lot after this visit and I began to think about living in this place.

B. Change the words in the brackets into correct adjective form.

People in Hong Kong seem to be very busy (busily) all the time. Although it was my first visit, I got a _____ (depth) impressions. In fact, I was _____ (curiosity) to know everything about this place. I was a bit _____ (nerve) before I boarded a plane for Hong Kong. I felt _____ (delight) when I landed in this city. My parents told me to stay _____ (calmness). ‘You’ll find many _____ (interest) things in Hong Kong.’ They told me. Suddenly, London seems to be a _____ (distance) city to me. ‘How do you find this place?’ they asked. ‘It is _____ (wonder),’ I replied. ‘Is this visit _____ (enjoy) or not?’ asked my mother. ‘Yes, very much! I find it _____ (un/forget),’ I told her.