

Name: _____

Cat in the Hat

1. The Cat said, "I know some new tricks. I will show them to you. I have 291 tricks in pocket one and 382 in pocket two." How many tricks does the Cat have? _____
 2. The Cat in the Hat was an unusual cat. He had 6 toes on each paw. How many toes did the Cat in the Hat have? _____
 3. I sat here with Sally, we sat here we two. And we said, "How we wish we had something to do." So Sally and I began counting the raindrops that fell. First we counted 32 raindrops, then another 25 fell, and then we counted 24 more. How many raindrops did we count in all? _____
 4. Our fish was very upset that we let the Cat in. He began blowing angry bubbles. The fish blew 8 bubbles, but 3 of them burst. What fraction of the bubbles did not pop? _____
 5. The Cat in the hat began balancing things in the air. He balanced the fish bowl, a book, and his umbrella. Unfortunately, he dropped all three. The water in the fish bowl spilled on the book, which had 450 pages. The first 318 pages got wet. How many pages stayed dry? _____
 6. Then that silly Cat tried balancing rakes. He balanced 3 rakes each with 8 prongs. How many prongs were up in the air? _____
 7. Thing 1 and Thing 2 began flying kites in the house. Thing 1's kite flew 12 feet, and Thing 2's flew 22. How much higher did Thing 1's kite fly? _____
- Mother left the house at exactly 9:00 AM and returned no later than noon. How many hours of fun did we have before she returned? _____