None	,
Name	Cause and effect
Flac	g Day
Cut out the effect boxes below. Then glue each	effect payt to its matching cause
∧ _ Cause
1 George Washington, Robert Morris,	Effect and George Ross asked Betsy Ross to sew a flag for the United States.
2 At the time, the United States had 13 colonies that needed to be symbolized on the flag.
Association mag.
3 On lune 14 1777 II. O. II.
3 On June 14, 1777, the Continental Congress passed the first Flag Act,	like the state of which told how official flags should look.
4 One hundred years later, Congress asked that flags be flown at all public buildings on June 14, 1877.
^
5 In 1949, President Truman signed a bill stating that Flag Day will be observed on the same date each year.
6 Over the years, Congress passed laws that allowed one star to be added to the flag each time a new state joined the union.
	• June/July 2007 • Key p. 309
Some people began to think this day should be observed every year.	Today our flag has 50 stars.
The American flag with 13 white stars on a blue field and 13 alternating red and white	Betsy Ross had the chance to create the first stripes became official.	American flag.

The flag Betsy Ross created had 13 stars and 13 stripes.

THE MAILBOX 41

Flag Day is observed on June 14 every year.