Communication Plan Worksheet

Directions: The purpose of this communication grid is to identify strategies for HR Managers to communicate how Career Banding will be implemented and how that will impact upon the various target audiences within your Division/Institution.

Who is to receive the information?	What information do they need to know?	How will they receive the information?	When do they need to receive the information?	How will you know if the information they receive makes sense to them?
Director / Executive Team / Managers (including Budget / Business Managers)	Career Banding Overview: What is Career Banding? Timeframes? How will it change the current system? How will we manage dual systems? Why are we banding? How will Career Banding affect the overall budget, budgeting processes, and approval authority? Questions/Answers	Scheduled overview using powerpoint presentation Updates and discussions in regularly scheduled meetings Email notices, newsletters, and memos on updates DHHS Banding website and updates to division/institution websites.	Overviewnow / ASAP Updates in standing meetings as information is received from DHHS central and/or OSP. (May choose to hold separate meetings or combine as appropriate.)	Request feedback Gain consensus Ask for feedback during standing meetings to ensure buy-in. Submit questions and concerns to Central HR.
Hiring	Career Banding Overview:	 Scheduled formal 	Prior to	 Demonstrated
Managers	■ What is Career Banding?	training sessions	implementation	through planned (including	■ Timeframes?	using powerpoint	of banded	exercises / examples supervisors)	Why are we banding?	presentation (a	classes.	during training.
	Questions/Answers	more detailed		 Standard training version to be	(May delay of	evaluations
		developed by	administration	May develop and use

15f0a547-df63-44f3-86a2-707123ce2227.doc NC DHHS 2005 Confidential