

1. Read (40%)

A. Read the text and answer the following questions. Write full answers.

Once upon a time, there was a fox family. They were living in a hole under a big fig tree.

The fox was looking rather bored when there happened to happen. There was some more the farmer. He was worried to have him. There were many, many and many in the house. There was many and many. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him.

He was worried to have him.

There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him.

There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him.

There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him. There was the farmer. He was worried to have him.

1. What was the fox family doing?

2. What happened to the fox family? Write full answers.

3. Why was the farmer worried?

4. Why was the farmer worried?

5. Why was the farmer worried?

6. What was the fox family doing? Write full answers.

B. Answer the following questions. Write full answers.

1. Why is your favourite character in the story "Silly"? Why?

2. Why is your favourite character in the story "Silly"? Why?

3. Do you like reading books? Why? Why not?