

HOLES

By Louis Sachar

Predict what the story will be about just by looking at the cover illustration and title. Justify your answer.

Now read the book of the book. Were you correct in your prediction? Explain your answer.

How do you rate the book? Is it attractive where you were already accused? How did you react?

Would you have picked up this book in a library to look at it? Why or why not?