

Topic →

→

Paragraph Writing

A paragraph usually has

- 1) Topic sentence - the sentence that tells the reader what the paragraph is about
- 2) Supporting sentences - these sentences tell more about the topic
- 3) Concluding sentence - this sentence brings together all of the other sentences and often repeats the topic

Always read the paragraph and underline the topic sentence, number the supporting sentences, and underline the concluding sentence.

Write the Owl at Desert Island

It was a beautiful island with coral reefs, palm trees and a big blue lagoon. I was alone because it was deserted. There were no other people or animals. I had to get food, so I had to go to the beach every day. There were many shells and some small fish. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals.

Use the paragraph and underline the topic sentence, number the supporting sentences and underline the concluding sentence.

Write the Owl at Desert Island

There were many shells and some small fish. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals. I had to be careful because there were some dangerous animals.

Write

