

Interview Tips

Always arrived 15 minutes early

Before the interview

1. Company should appear in the headline, interview looking for right.
  - Always have one good extra question that you could ask if they're not interested in an interview.
2. Research the client.
  - Name, skills, dress, suit is polished and professional
3. Research the company and the job ahead of time.
  - Be your best self, know the company, the manager, and the job's specific tasks.
4. Research competitors and other companies.
  - About the company, its mission and employees.
5. Prepare for the interview.
  - Take time off work.
6. Think out the questions of your resume and a list of references.
7. Practice answers with someone.
  - At home, family members, etc. by treating them as though you had a real question with you.
8. Connect with contacts of your client.
9. Research and identify a nice route to the client.

- Research the company and the job ahead of time.
 - Be your best self, know the company, the manager, and the job's specific tasks.
 - About the company, its mission and employees.
 - Take time off work.
 - Think out the questions of your resume and a list of references.
 - Practice answers with someone.
 - At home, family members, etc. by treating them as though you had a real question with you.
 - Connect with contacts of your client.
 - Research and identify a nice route to the client.

For the interview

1. Introduction.
  - Mutual greetings and pleases - business like.
2. Briefly use questions asked questions you brought.
3. Answer questions for about your background.
4. Explain your skills and experiences of your resume, list of references and related work.
5. Ask about the business before you enter the building.