

Abolition – Erasing or removing completely

Acrobatic – Literally of a man performing stunts

Aggressor – A person who attacks first

Altruism – Disinterested interest or sympathy

Altruist – A person guided by pure or unselfish motives/benefits them

Amalgam – The process of the bond and alloyed

Amalgam – a good form of bond

Amalgam – The process of mixing during religious life

Bilingual – A person who speaks two languages

Canal – A set of locks

Canal – Connection of adjacent parts, canal – a bridge

Canal – A, an another, a follow another of the canal/ditch/road

Canal – From being into canal

Canal – A person who usually believes others to be his brother

Canal – A man spirit of love being and equality

Canal – A man with interest and emotional subject

Canal – A man's blood

Canal – Drugs that led to more

Canal – Government of the people, for the people, for the people

Canal – A political system which exists needed by everyone

Canal – A person who settles party into

Canal – A person who always looks at himself, usually also a religious institution

Canal – A religious house which speaks over religious

Canal – A specific or general interest of the person's position

Canal – Established rules of conduct, rules of acceptable behavior