

Abolition – To get rid of someone or something

Anthropology – The study of a man or humanity in general

Apprentice – A person who studies a trade

Assault – An unlawful physical contact or interference by

Authoritarian – A person supported by parties to authority (dictator/tyranny/totalitarian)

Autonomous – The person who is self-governed and self-directed

Biography – A genealogy of events

Biology – The branch of science dealing with living life

Bilingual – A person who speaks two languages

Biography – A list of events

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change

Calculus – A branch of mathematics that deals with change