

Abolition – To get rid of someone or something

Acrobatics – Lethality of a man or woman's strength

Aggression – A person who attacks first

Altruism – One who gives without expecting anything

Altruistic – A person supported by parties to another's happiness or benefit

Amalgamation – The process of combining different and different

Amalgam – a good form of union

Amateur – One who is not a professional in a particular field

Amalgam – A person who speaks two languages

Amalgam – A form of union

Amalgam – Combination of different parts into a whole

Amalgam – A mixture of different elements or substances

Amalgamation – Process of combining different things

Amalgam – A person who usually believes in others to be better than him

Amalgam – A mixture of different things and qualities

Amalgamation – A man who is not a professional in a particular field

Amalgam – A mixture of different things

Amalgam – Things that lead to more

Amalgamation – Government of the people, for the people, by the people

Amalgamation – A political system which exists in a state of anarchy

Amalgam – A person who is not a professional in a particular field

Amalgam – A person who always thinks of himself, usually also a selfish person

Amalgam – A mixture of different things and qualities

Amalgamation – A person who is not a professional in a particular field

Amalgam – A mixture of different things, rules of conduct, rules of conduct