

Abolition – To get rid of slavery or slavery

Abolitionist – A person who is against slavery

Aggression – A person who attacks first

Altruism – Concern for the interest or good of others

Altruist – A person motivated by justice to assist the oppressed/underprivileged

Amalgamation – The process of mixing the black and white races

Amalgamate – to join or mix

Assimilate – The process of bringing different cultures into

Bilingual – A person who speaks two languages

Caricature – A form of humor

Castigate – Criticism of someone's past, now – rebuke

Collaborate – A co worker or a fellow worker with someone else

Conspire – To conspire with someone

Conscience – A person who usually believes someone is better than

Crimes – A crime against of law, being and equality

Crucifixion – A man with a cross and a crucifixion symbol

Debate – A discussion between

Defendant – To get rid of a crime

Democracy – Government of the people, for the people, by the people

Demagogue – A political system which is not needed by everyone

Demagogue – A person who rallies party into

Epitaph – A person who always thinks of himself, usually also a religious institution

Epitaph – A religious theme which speaks over someone

Entrepreneur – A person or a government which provides services

Entrepreneur – Established rules of conduct, rules of acceptable behavior