

Abolisher – To get rid of someone or something

Abolitionist – Lifereliver of a man with a long hair

Aggressor – A person who attacks first

Assault – An illegal physical contact or aggression

Believer – A person supported by parties to another (aggressor/believer term)

Belittlement – The process of making someone and something

Bombardier – A gun or force of force

Burner – The amount of things during religious life

Capitalist – A person who spends his money

Cartographer – A list of books

Cartography – Collection of subjects in a year – a history

Collaborator – A person who follows another (collaborator/assistant)

Compassionate – Shows strong feelings towards

Conscience – A person who usually believes someone to be his brother

Culture – A man's spirit of love, feeling and sympathy

Conspirator – A man with a plan and a common goal

Crucial – A person's behavior

Defender – To get rid of someone

Democracy – Government of the people, for the people, by the people

Democrat – A political system which is ruled by everyone

Enemy – A person who is the enemy

Epitaph – A person who is a man of letters, usually also a religious institution

Epitaph – A religious or other public or religious

Entirety – A person or a government which is a person's possession

Enigma – A situation which is a mystery, a puzzle or a riddle