

Abolisher – To destroy utterly and forever

Acronyms – Abbreviation of a name consisting of initial letters

Aggressor – A person who attacks first

Altruism – Disinterested interest or sympathy

Altruist – A person guided by justice to another despite personal loss

Antagonism – The person or persons that stand against

Antagonist – a great force of action

Barren – The absence of things during unproductive life

Bilingual – A person who speaks two languages

Carriage – A set of wheels

Carriage – Collection of subjects (the past, now – a bridge)

Colleague – A co-worker or a fellow worker with similar interests

Compassion – Interest during suffering

Conscience – A person who usually believes otherwise to better himself

Culture – A way of life or a way of thinking and speaking

Controversial – A man with different and unusual opinions

Curious – Attention focused

Dark leader – One who lead to more

Democracy – Government of the people, for the people, for the people

Democracy – A political system which voters elected by consensus

Enemy – A person who rather party into

Expert – A person who always thinks of himself, usually, also a self-interest influenced

Equilibrium – A constant state which speaks over all groups

Entrepreneur – a person or a group of people who find business opportunities

Especially – Emphasized roles of product, roles of complete behavior