

Subject, Object, and Pronoun Study Guide

Write S if the underlined word is a subject pronoun. Write O if the word is an object pronoun. Write P if the word is a possessive pronoun.

1. _____ I would like a treehouse.
2. _____, 3. _____ Will you help me with the project?
4. _____ Dad and we can get lumber and nails.
5. _____, 6. _____ Use my rope to lift materials to Dad and him.
7. _____, 8. _____, 9. _____ They'll climb up our ladder with us.

Circle the correct pronoun or pronouns in () to complete each sentence.

- 10, 11. (She, Her) and (I, me) would like to live on another world.
- 12, 13. (Us, Our) friends and (we, us) pretend to be shipwrecked on a remote island.
- 14, 15. The natives have a way of life that is strange to (she, her) and (I, me).
- 16, 17. It is odd, but (him, he) and (she, her) give gifts to their subjects.
- 18, 19. John and (me, I) become inventors in this world.

From the given choices, write the pronoun that correctly completes each sentence.

20. Do _____ like unusual foods? them, him, her, you
21. Gina and _____ try foods from Africa. me, she, them, us
22. Their food is similar to _____. her, ours, my, it's
23. While I like _____ couscous, I prefer rice. theirs, their, it's, it
24. _____ is made from wheat and spices. him, her, it, them
25. May she and _____ go to the library? she, her, I, him