

Practice Makes Perfect Story

Date and Signature

Ask the tutorial assistant or an LLC staff member to date and sign this worksheet when you finish the story.

[Signature]

Title

Write the name of the story you read.

The Titanic

Summary

Write what the story was about in four or five full sentences.

The Titanic was like a great floating palace. But on its first voyage it sank and more than 1,500 people were lost at sea.

Seventy-three years after it was found lying at the bottom of the North Atlantic Ocean. Deep-sea divers found lots of precious goods that belonged to passengers of the Titanic.

Response

Did you enjoy reading the story? Why or why not?

Yes.

Because the story is famous in the world.

Was reading the book good for your English? How?

Yes.

How to use simple sentences that describe to complete a complex story.

Will you read another story from Practice Makes Perfect? Why or why not?

Yes.

The story is short. I only need a little time to know the story.

Extra Task Four

Date and Signature

Ask the tutorial assistant or a LLC staff member to date and sign this worksheet when you have finished your task.

[Signature]

Summary

What did you do? What was it about?

Watching film: "Autumn in New York"

This is a love film. Keane is a most fashionable restaurant owner. He loves Charlotte. She is younger <sup>more</sup> than Keane. She is terminally ill. When Christmas will come, she's died. For the first time in his life, Keane has found a love that he wants to last forever.

Response

Why did you choose this task?

hear real life language.

Was it good for your English? Why or why not?

Yes.

I can practice my listening and satisfy my eyes.

Will you do any other tasks? Why? Why not?

keep on.

It's interesting.