

Teacher's Notes

Use the notes on this page to take notes on the text, or use the notes on this page to review your own notes.

1. Before the beginning of the story, the author tells us about the main character, the boy, and his family. What do you know about the boy and his family? Write down the main points.
2. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.
3. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.
4. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

5. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.
6. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.
7. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.

Notes

Write down the main points of the story. Write down the main points of the story.

Write down the main points of the story. Write down the main points of the story.

8. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.
9. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.

1. What do you know about the boy's family?

2%

2. What do you know about the boy's family?

3%

3. What do you know about the boy's family?

4%

4. What do you know about the boy's family?

5%

5. What do you know about the boy's family?

6%

10. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.

11. What do you know about the boy's family? Write down the main points.

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?

What do you know about the boy's family?