7th Grade Academic Vocabulary Test Group 11

1. statehood
   a. the status of a state in the United States, as opposed to a territory
   b. data arranged in rows and columns
   c. the use of descriptions or terms commonly used by members of a group that represents an oversimplified and/or inaccurate opinion, prejudiced attitude, or judgment

2. stereotyping
   a. anything that causes a response or results in a behavior
   b. the use of descriptions or terms commonly used by members of a group that represents an oversimplified and/or inaccurate opinion, prejudiced attitude, or judgment
   c. data arranged in rows and columns

3. stimulus
   a. the use of descriptions or terms commonly used by members of a group that represents an oversimplified and/or inaccurate opinion, prejudiced attitude, or judgment
   b. data arranged in rows and columns
   c. anything that causes a response or results in a behavior

4. straight angle
   a. anything that causes a response or results in a behavior
   b. an angle whose measure is exactly 180 degrees, which creates a straight line
   c. data arranged in rows and columns

5. structure
   a. data arranged in rows and columns
   b. anything that causes a response or results in a behavior
   c. how individual parts are constructed and arranged to form a whole

6. subordinate clause
   a. anything that causes a response or results in a behavior
   b. a group of separate, independent parts working together as one object
   c. part of the sentence that amplifies the main clause but does not make complete grammatical sense on its own

7. succession
   a. anything that causes a response or results in a behavior
   b. the gradual, predictable changes in a plant or animal community over a long period of time
   c. the status of a state in the United States, as opposed to a territory

8. supplementary angles
   a. two angles whose measures have a sum of 180 degrees
   b. data arranged in rows and columns
   c. anything that causes a response or results in a behavior