

Name _____

Circle the correct adjective.

a) The girls were mad because they could not play.

happy                      sad                      angry

b) The chair was not hard.

brown                      new                      soft

c) Another word for not awake is:

asleep                      loud                      scared

d) The door was not closed.

shut                      dirty                      open

e) Everyone was feeling scared during the storm.

cold                      afraid                      nice

f) The farmer's pig was not dirty.

fat                      pink                      clean

g) Kim-Su laughs all the the time and is full of fun.

jolly                      angry                      kind

h) The boys wanted to hold the small baby.

litle                      young                      round

