

READING SKILLS (2000-2001) QUESTIONS
(Grade 5/6/7/8)

1. A thoughtful reader has noted that when critics praise her, which part of her story immediately catches your attention most of all?
2. The story has a strong conclusion.
3. It had a surprising twist.
4. The author begins to present an important point.
5. It came into her life.
6. My mother's presence.
7. My mother's teaching style.
8. It made her feel better.
9. I got angry when...
10. She, I think, was very...
11. She was the one who...
12. She was the one who...
13. She was the one who...
14. She was the one who...
15. She was the one who...
16. She was the one who...
17. She was the one who...
18. She was the one who...
19. She was the one who...
20. She was the one who...
21. She was the one who...
22. She was the one who...
23. She was the one who...
24. She was the one who...
25. She was the one who...
26. She was the one who...
27. She was the one who...
28. She was the one who...
29. She was the one who...
30. She was the one who...
31. She was the one who...
32. She was the one who...
33. She was the one who...
34. She was the one who...
35. She was the one who...
36. She was the one who...
37. She was the one who...
38. She was the one who...
39. She was the one who...
40. She was the one who...