

ALVIN TROTTEN

1. Match the adjectives to the professions, with the person from 1975.

Profession	Best adjective
1. lawyer	... smart
2. thief	... rich
3. singer	... washed
4. actor	... rich
5. model	... fit
6. DJ	... successful
7. lawyer	... successful
8. film	... rich
9. DJ	... rich
10. scientist	... poor
11. actor	... very rich
12. DJ	... rich

2. Answer the following questions based on the reading.

TRUE OR FALSE?

1. Trottin was a famous jazz singer?
2. Trottin was poor?
3. Trottin was a professional singer?
4. Trottin was a very smart?
5. Trottin was poor?

3. Answer these questions according to the reading. Write ONLY ONE WORD.

1. Where was Trottin?
2. How was he poor?
3. What did he do for his first job?
4. What did he want for his first song?
5. What did he want for his first record?
6. What did he want for his first album?

4. Complete the text about Alvin Trottin using the past form of the verbs in 1. Use capital and lower case when they create the writing text again.

Who was Alvin Trottin?

Alvin Trottin _____ an American rock and roll singer. He _____ born on January 27, 1945 in Dallas, Texas. He _____ a DJ for _____ radio station for his first job. When he _____ school he _____ at a local school. He was _____ very poor. He _____ the first time in 1974, but then he wrote the song "You're So Fine" _____ a hit. He _____ a very successful singer. He _____ the first time, "You're So Fine" in 1974. He _____ "You're So Fine" in 1974 and _____ in Hollywood, but in 1975 they got divorced. He _____ a lot of money then and _____ a lot of money then. He _____ a lot of money then. He _____ a lot of money then.

5. Complete the questions depending on the word given.

1. What _____? (a girl)
2. What _____? (in 1974)
3. What _____? (You're So Fine)
4. What _____? (Hollywood)
5. What _____? (1975)