

Controlling, Coping, Caring

Describe the worst thing that ever happened to you.

What have helped you to survive through such a difficult experience?

What else could help you to cope with this experience? Are there any skills or techniques that you have learned that have helped you to deal with it? Explain.

How has this experience affected you and how will you try to make things better for yourself?
