FROZEN

In the Kingdom of Arendelle, the King and the Queen have two daughters: Elsa and Anna. Elsa is the older sister and she has a special power — she makes snow and ice. One evening, Elsa plays with her sister and hits her with an ice blast. The King and the Queen go to see the Wise Troll Pabbie. Anna is unhurt and she removes Elsa's powers. The Wise Troll's parting words are misunderstood. "Fear will turn your head, Elsa's powers grow and she has to wear gloves. Soon, the girls lose their parents. Three years after, the castle celebrates its crown. Elsa is the new Queen. Anna goes out into the city and meets a handsome prince named Hans. Is this a sign of love or loneliness? Are princesses in Anna and she says "yes!" to the marriage and proposal. Instantly, Elsa says "no!" to the marriage and refuses her powers. Instantly, Elsa runs into the mountains. Unsatisfied by Elsa, Anna decides to find her sister and asks her why she left the town. On her way to the mountains, Anna meets Kristoff and his reindeer Sven. They help her find Elsa. Elsa says, they aren't real, a helpful snowman. Elsa doesn't mean to go back because she is afraid she will hurt someone. She gets upset and hits Anna's breast with an icy shell. Kristoff puts Anna back to the castle. Olaf and Hans kiss her and tell everyone she is dead. Elsa is so perfect. Hans wants to kill her and rule the whole. Then he would be the King. Olaf warns Anna and she realizes that Elsa hasn't killed — she thinks love like true action and Anna's sacred breath has gotten. Elsa starts to cry and her tears become ice! again — Anna thinks "the gift of true love"! The snowman returns into the kingdom. Olaf gets his own "Disney" on the carrot nose! In the end, Kristoff and Anna get a kiss! The soldiers are forgotten again and the doors of the castle will never be closed again.
