

Nonfiction books

Information books are nonfiction. They are about things that are true.

The list at the front of a book is called the table of contents. It tells you what the main parts of the book are and helps you find the pages they are on.

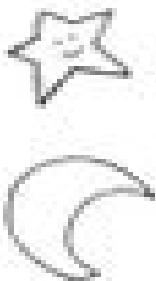

Table of Contents
Stars	9
Planets	11
The Sun	19
The Moon	24
The Milky Way	30
Space travel	32

What is a book with this table of contents about? _____

Write page numbers for these:

stars _____      planets _____      sun _____      Milky Way _____

The index is at the end of a book. It is a list of all the things in the book, and the pages they are on.

Index
Earth	11, 12, 13
Mars	15, 16
Milky Way	2, 27-31
moon	24-29
oxygen	14
rocket	18, 36

Which pages are about these things?

Mars _____      rocket _____

Can you read about Earth on page 25? _____

Are the index words in alphabetical order? _____