

PARTS OF SPEECH WORKSHEET #1

You will be using this worksheet throughout our study of the parts of speech. In order to complete this sheet, you will need colored pencils, crayons or markers in the following colors: red, green, blue, yellow, orange, purple and brown. Do not work ahead. Only complete the directions for each part of speech when I say so. DIRECTIONS: Using your colored pencils, markers or crayons, underline the parts of speech in the following story with the colors: red-nouns, green-pronouns, blue-verbs, yellow-adjectives, orange-adverbs, purple-prepositions, and brown-conjunctions. List the words for each part of speech in the spaces provided.

HINT: Watch for helping verbs and be careful of contractions. Helping verbs along with the main verb are considered as one part of speech; the verb.

Troy impatiently rapped his fingers on the steering wheel. He peered through the windshield at the pummeling raindrops. Where was Carrie? She had promised she'd be at the turnoff by Beaver Dam Road by eight. The digital clock on the dashboard flashed eight-thirty-two.

"I'll wait fifteen more minutes," Troy mumbled. He sighed in frustration. "I hope no one catches me here and becomes suspicious. She knows our schedule is tight." Both were fully aware that their most dangerous time period fell before they reached their safe house.
