

Past tense vs. Present perfect tense

I, we told have told
 You told have told
 He, she told has told
 They told have told

I, we worked have worked
 You worked have worked
 He, she worked has worked
 They worked have worked

I, we went have gone
 You went have gone
 He, she went has gone
 They went have gone

I _____ you I cannot pay you right now.
 (tell)

The woman _____
 since she was 12 years
 old. (work)

Grandfather _____ to the movies with Ana. (go)

I, we was have been
 You were have been
 He, she was has been
 They were have been

I, we asked have asked
 You asked have asked
 He, she asked has asked
 They asked have asked

I, we finished have finished
 You finished have finished
 He, she finished has finished
 They finished have finished

My father _____ a gardener for 18 years.
 (be)

The landlord _____
 the tenant to pay the rent.
 (ask)

The employee _____ 150
 gray dresses. (finish)

I, we took have taken
 You took have taken
 He, she took has taken
 They took have taken

I, we gave have given
 You gave have given
 He, she gave has given
 They gave have given

I, we showed have shown
 You showed have shown
 He, she showed has shown
 They showed have shown

We _____ off our shoes because it's so hot. (take)

My friend _____ me
 this toy for my birthday.
 (give)

He _____ his daughter
 how to ride a bike. (show)

- I _____ (told) you to stop talking!
- Mom _____ (give) us twenty dollars to spend.
- The policeman _____ (ask) you to slow down!
- I _____ (be) a teacher for 10 years.
 He _____ (go) to the beach every day.