

Insert the prepositions where necessary.

1. The kitchen is ... opposite ... the first floor.
2. The house is not far ... the cinema.
3. There are a lot ... houses ... the countryside.
4. Do you go ... school ... can we do you with that?
5. ... between the houses full down ... the trees.
6. There is a piano ... our sitting-room.
7. We're about ... little children and animals.
8. Sorry, I can't join ... you. I'm busy.
9. Are you afraid ... dogs?
10. What is there ... your school? (and)
11. The hotel is ... downtown ... the bathroom.
12. Kate opened the door ... the hall ... the terrace ... a small key.
13. It will take ... tomorrow.
14. He's not got a nice house ... the country.
15. Betty and Peter went ... the country ... a fine autumn day.
16. ... the left you can see an old church.
17. You can see a famous monument ... Forbidden ... see ... Museum square.
18. ... because I really go ... my granny ... holidays.
19. Our classroom is ... 12-16 ... the afternoon.
20. There are a lot ... tall trees ... that part ... the forest.
21. Come and sit down with ... me.
22. It happened ... my cousin last year.
23. What is ... the cinema today?
24. He took some food ... the bridge.
25. Have you ever heard ... the radio?
26. Mrs. Brown lives ... Main Road.
27. On ... the corner opposite here ... the left.
28. ... children/people build houses ... round.
29. Hi, Polly! I haven't seen you ... ages.
30. Has he ever been ... London?
31. Look! ... your hands. They are dirty.
32. My desk is ... front ... the teacher's table.
33. There is no dining-room ... my flat.
34. I don't believe ... his story.
35. Can you describe it ... me.