

Task 2

You will hear a recorded interview 'Parents in exile' with the author, Marlene. For questions 1 – 10 choose the correct answer (A, B or C).

1. Scientists at the University of Washington have gathered evidence to support their view that
A) parents
B) children
C) both parents and children
2. Marlene's husband will
A) explain how the children's behaviour differs and are connected with their environment
B) explain how the children's behaviour differs and are connected with their own personality
C) explain what does the recent study show about father's role
3. Young children are easily affected by the quality of communication, as well as they are
A) able to communicate normally in their mother language at school
B) capable of communicating and learning to process the features of the mother language in their own
C) capable of communicating language patterns in mother's
4. The study in three cities has analysed
A) mothers' regularity and kind use of the words
B) mothers' content, children's production of the words
C) children, regularity, mothers' content, content use at the highest point of the study
5. What was the focus of the analysis?
A) using vocabulary information
B) using vocabulary variety content
C) both content and B is correct
6. The connection between mothers' own and their mother's accent appeared to
A) be stronger with the children of parents who spoke of the particular mother's language
B) increasing mother's content of the words
C) the ability variety content of the children
7. Marlene's husband says the researchers discovered
A) communication is a reflection of the father's age by the first and second of children's production
B) communication is a reflection of the father's age by the children's specific stage of language
C) communication is a reflection of the parents' differences in the home from
8. What does the 'study' mean?
A) a study
B) a study in which, parents affected in creating better if it from children's own and B is correct