

Task 2

You will hear a recorded interview "Parents by choice" with the author, Barbara Thorne. For questions 1 – 10 choose the correct answer (A, B or C).

1. Scientists at the University of Warwick have gathered evidence to support their view that:
A) parents
B) children
C) both parents and children
2. Barbara Thorne will:
A) explain how the connection between children and parents changed with their movement
B) explain how the connection between children and parents changed with their own maturing
C) explain what does the recent study show about father's role
3. Young children are easily affected by the quality of communication, as well as they are:
A) able to communicate normally in their mother language at birth
B) capable of communicating and learning to process the features of the mother language in their own
C) capable of communicating language patterns in mother's
4. The study in three areas involves analysis:
A) speech, language and handwriting of the child
B) reading, writing, drawing and mathematics of the child
C) speech, reading, writing, mathematics, drawing and the highest point of the child
5. What was the focus of the analysis?
A) using vocabulary information
B) using vocabulary writing content
C) both parents A and B are correct
6. The connection between children's own and their mother's spoken speech is:
A) the relationship between children's own and their mother's spoken speech
B) increasing reading content of the parents
C) the ability writing content of the parents
7. Barbara Thorne says the researchers discovered:
A) children's language is a reflection of the father's language level and vocabulary
B) children's language is a reflection of the father's language level and specific stage of language
C) children's language is a reflection of the parents' language on the lowest level
8. What does the 'study' mean?
A) a study
B) a study involving, directly affected or resulting action of a form
C) both parents A and B are correct