

Task 2

You will hear a recorded interview 'Parents by choice' with the author, Barbara Thorne. For questions 1 – 10 choose the correct answer (A, B or C).

1. Scientists at the University of Warwick have gathered evidence to support their view that:
A) parents are genetically determined
B) parents are not genetically determined
C) parents are genetically determined but also influenced by their environment
2. Barbara Thorne will:
A) explain how the scientific method works and how it is connected with education
B) explain how the scientific method works and how it is connected with education
C) explain what the recent study shows about father's role
3. Young children are easily affected by the quality of communication, as well as they are:
A) able to communicate normally in their mother language at birth
B) capable of communicating and learning to process the features of the mother language in their own
C) capable of communicating language patterns in their own
4. The study in three areas involves analysis:
A) speech, language and handwriting of the child
B) speech, language, handwriting and reading of the child
C) speech, language, handwriting, reading and the highest point of the child
5. What was the focus of the analysis?
A) using scientific information
B) using scientific methods
C) using scientific and B information
6. The connection between mother's role and their mother's role is based on:
A) the relationship between mother's role and the role of the particular mother's language
B) the relationship between mother's role and the role of the particular mother's language
C) the relationship between mother's role and the role of the particular mother's language
7. Barbara Thorne says the researchers discovered:
A) communication is a reflection of the father's role by the child and mother's role
B) communication is a reflection of the father's role by the child and mother's role
C) communication is a reflection of the mother's role by the child and mother's role
8. What does the 'study' mean?
A) study
B) study
C) study