

Name _____

Date _____

VALUE

Value is the lightness or darkness of a color. In each column, create different values of the same color, as shown in the example.

Example:

Use colored pencil to color your own value scale in the boxes.

Use cross-hatching to create your own value scale in the boxes below.

Use stippling to create your own value scale in the boxes below.

Use scribbles to create your own value scale in the boxes below.

