

PUBLIC SPEAKING AND DEBATE(Master)

Teacher: NICKI GRAHAM

Month	Content	Skills	Assessment
January 2010	A. Building Responsibility <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -communication process -audience -verbal/nonverbal communication B. Building Confidence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -stage fright -perception -planks of confidence C. Organization/Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> -rhetorical question -quotation -narrative -introduction (hook, link, thesis, preview) -body -conclusion -outline -supporting materials -organization patterns D. Speech to Inform	A. Building Responsibility <ul style="list-style-type: none"> A1. identify and analyze the ethical and social responsibilities of communication. A2. identify the components of the communication process A3. Recognize audience as an important element in building responsible communication skills A4. analyze the importance of both verbal and nonverbal communication B. Building Confidence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> B1. Recognize the realities of stage fright and how to combat it B2. Realize the value of perception as it applies to confidence B3. Implement the planks of confidence B4. Present "Symbol" speech C. Organization/Research <ul style="list-style-type: none"> C1. Distinguish between plagiarism and intellectual honesty C2. Use effective strategies to organize and outline presentations C3. Develop appropriate introductions and conclusions C4. Identify and use the various organization for presentations D. Speech to Inform <ul style="list-style-type: none"> D1. Identify the major types of informative 	A1-A4, B1-B3, C1-C4, D1-D4. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - teacher-created worksheets -vocabulary quiz (matching, multiple choice, and open-ended) -teacher-created study guide -reading quiz (open-ended) -teacher observation -teacher-created test (multiple choice, matching, fill-in-the-blank, and short answer/essay) B4, D5. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Symbol presentation rubric - Informative speech rubric - Peer critique sheets