

Identifying Sentence Fragments

23

Directions: Write the number of each sentence fragment or group of fragments that is underlined in parentheses or inside the square brackets.

- If there is more than one sentence fragment, write the number of each.
- If there is more than one fragment, write the number of each.

1. [] He gave me the book and my brother was excited.
2. [] They should see the doctor going to see a doctor. (1)
3. [] The man at the end of the street always says to me.
4. [] All the children there are healthy and happy.
5. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
6. [] People like to go to the doctor when they are ill.
7. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
8. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
9. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
10. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
11. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
12. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
13. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
14. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
15. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
16. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
17. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
18. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
19. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.
20. [] He has a very good job and is well paid.

Copyright © Pearson Education, Inc. All rights reserved.